

Order Management from LabPrints

Faster Fulfillment for Storefront Orders

LabPrints Storefront users can now have orders go automatically to their lab for fulfillment--it's a completely "hands -off" process! And, for those who still prefer to check every order, the download process has been automated, SAVING YOU TIME! It's all part of the new tool from LabPrints, Order Management!

Features

Benefits

Complete fulfillment

After uploading your images, just sit back and watch the proceeds from your orders be deposited into your account. Less time in front of the computer!

Complete control

You can still check every order, but orders will download into the Invoicing screen automatically. Or, you can specify several options which will hold back orders until you approve them for uploading!

Simplified interface

One location to check ALL event orders. Saves you time!

Improved order tracking

Well-organized and complete information will help you with order tracking and management.

LabPrints is pleased to provide this new service to all of our Storefront customers, FREE of charge!

Our goal is to streamline our photographers' workflow—so you can spend more time focused on growing your business.
